Report of the Chief Electoral Officer

(Part I)

Official Report

Writ of Election

The Twentieth Saskatchewan Legislature was dissolved on Friday, September 19, 1986 by the Honourable Frederick W. Johnson, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan, pursuant to Section 3 of The Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act. On the same day an Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council was passed pursuant to Section 4 of The Election Act, directing the Chief Electoral Officer to issue a Writ of Election to each of sixty-four returning officers whose names are set out in Appendix I of this report. The Order further stipulated that:

Nomination Day be held on Saturday, October 4, 1986

Advance Polls be held on Tuesday, October 14, 1986 through Saturday, October 18, 1986

Election Day be held on Monday, October 20, 1986

The Official Count be held on Saturday, November 1, 1986

The Return of the Writ be Wednesday, November 12, 1986.

Thus was set in motion the mechanism to elect the Twenty-first Legislature of Saskatchewan.

Political Parties and Candidates

On the day that the Writ of Election was issued there were four political parties registered in the Register of Political Parties kept by the Chief Electoral Officer pursuant to Section 203.1 of The Election Act. After the Writ had issued, but prior to Nomination Day, two more political parties were registered: the Communist Party which registered on October 2nd, and the Alliance Party which registered in the late afternoon of October 3rd. Due to the lateness of these two registrations, it severely strained the resources of Electoral Office staff to get the requisite information out to every returning officer prior to Nomination Day, October 4th, so that candidates running for these parties could have their nomination papers accepted.

By close of nominations at 2 p.m. on Saturday, October 4, 1986, 211 candidates had been nominated as follows: 6 Alliance, 1 Communist, 64 Liberal, 64 New Democrat, 64 Progressive Conservative, 9 Western Canada Concept, and 3 running as Independents. Appendix I in Part II of this report contains a list of names, addresses and occupations of candidates, and the names and addresses of their respective business managers.

No candidate withdrew from the election and no candidate was elected by acclamation.

Enumeration

The enumeration process officially began on Friday, September 19, 1986, the day that the Writ of Election was dropped, and continued until 10:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 16, 1986, the fourth day before Election Day, known as the day for the Court of Revision.

Most Returning Officers held enumeration schools for their enumerators on the weekend of September 20th – 21st and enumerators began their work early in the week of September 22nd. By the end of the 10 day period allowed for the initial stage of the enumeration, close to 3,000 enumerators had braved high winds and torrential rains to enumerate 647,903 eligible voters or 97% of the 669,716 names that appeared on the revised lists after the final revising phase of the enumeration was completed at 10:00 p.m. on October 16, 1986.

Polling Divisions

There were 2,944 regular polling divisions, and 115 special polls, This necessitated setting up 2,944 polling places for regular polls, 150 polling places for special polls and also 150 polling places in which to hold advance polls.

Regular and special polling places* were open 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. C.S.T. on Monday, October 20, 1986. Advance polls were open 3:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. on October 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th. All told, just under 550,000 or 82% of all eligible voters visited the various polling stations and cast their ballots.

Results of the Counts

With the exception of mail-in, hospital and remand prisoner ballots, the votes cast at advance polls and election day polls were counted by Deputy Returning Officers and Election Clerks, watched by candidates' representatives, at the respective polling places. Results were then phoned in to Returning Officers at their Election Day Headquarters and recorded. The unofficial results produced by this process showed 38 Progressive Conservatives, 25 New Democrats and 1 Liberal elected.

On Saturday, October 25, 1986, Electoral Office staff sorted hospital, sanatoria and remand centre ballots by constituency, at the Electoral Office in Regina, with representatives of the various political parties present to witness the proceedings. These ballots were then distributed to the appropriate constituencies ready for the Official Count.

The Official Count took place on Saturday, November 1, 1986 and the end result confirmed the unofficial results of election day. A list of members elected together with their political affiliations, addresses and occupations is contained in Part I, Appendix II of this report. Votes cast by constituency and by polling division are contained in Part I, Appendix III and Appendix IV respectively.

*Where circumstances and numbers of voters do not warrant a polling place staying open from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., there is provision made in The Election Act for such polls to open from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. only. A few special polls took advantage of this provision.

In only one constituency, Regina Wascana, was a judicial recount applied for. The application was brought under Section 127 of The Election Act, a section heretofore unused. The application was, in any case, dismissed by the court and no recount was held.

Under The Election Act, candidates' deposits are forfeited if they do not obtain at least one-half the number of votes cast in favour of the candidate elected. 94 Candidates forfeited their deposits: 6 of the Alliance Party; 1 of the Communist Party; 62 of the Liberal Party; 5 of the New Democratic Party; 8 of the Progressive Conservative Party; 9 of the Western Canada Concept and 3 running as Independents.

On Wednesday, November 12, 1986, 62 Returning Officers made a Return to the Writ of Election that was issued to them.

The Chief Electoral Officer published in the Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 82, Nos. 47, 48 and 49) notices of the receipt of the returns and the names of the candidates elected to the Legislature.

Mr. Speaker:

I have the honour to submit herewith, pursuant to Section 222(1) of The Election Act, a report respecting election expenses of candidates and their business managers, and of registered political parties at the twenty-first general election held on October 20, 1986.

Yours sincerely,

Keith Lampard,
Chief Electoral Officer.

Election Expense Limits

1. Southern Constituencies (i.e. all constituencies other than Athabasca and Cumberland)

The amount of election expenses that can be legally incurred by candidates at an election is stipulated by Section 214 of The Election Act. The adjusted amount for 1986 was $28,112.04 or $1.86 times the number of names on the voters' lists whichever was greater. There needed to be in excess of 15,114 voters on the voters' lists for this latter amount to have exceeded the former.

There were three constituencies which had more than 15,114 voters and consequently had higher expense limits. These were:

Regina North West: 15,751 voters; expense limit $29,296.86

Saskatoon Eastview: 18,001 voters; expense limit $33,481.86

Saskatoon Mayfair: 20,741 voters; expense limit $38,578.26

2. Northern Constituencies (i.e. Athabasca and Cumberland)

The adjusted amount of election expenses that could be incurred by candidates in northern constituencies in 1986 was $37,481.78 or $3.75 times the number of names on the voters' lists, whichever was greater. There would need to have been in excess of 9,995 voters in a constituency for this latter amount to have exceeded the former. Neither constituency qualified under the latter formula.

3. Registered Political Parties

The adjusted amount of election expenses for 1986, that could legally be incurred by a registered political party at an election, as outlined in The Election Act, section 208, was $468,522.16.

4. Auditor's Fees

Section 224 of The Election Act allows for the reimbursement of the lesser amount of the auditor's fee or the adjusted amount for 1986 of $467.92. This reimbursement is available only to candidates, there being no similar provision for the auditing of registered political party returns.

5. Reimbursements to Candidates and Registered Political Parties

The Election Act, section 223, allows for reimbursement of 50% of candidates eligible election expenses up to the allowable expense limit as set out under 1 and 2 above if the candidate receives not less than 15% of the valid votes cast in the constituency in which he was a candidate. The same section also allows for the reimbursement of registered political parties of up to one-third of eligible election expenses or the adjusted amount for 1986 of $140,557.35 (whichever is the lesser), if the party obtained in the aggregate not less than 15% of all the valid votes cast in the election.

Election Expense Returns

1. Candidates

Political Party	Candidates Nominated	Candidates Reimbursed	Total Amount of Reimbursement
Alliance	6	–	–
Communist	1	–	–
Liberal	64	10	119,839.72
New Democrat	64	64	829,895.56
Progressive Conservative	64	63	880,460.14
Western Canada Concept	9	–	–
Independent	3	–	–
	211	137	1,830,195.42

A total of 208 candidates filed audited returns, one return was filed unaudited and incomplete, and two candidates did not file returns (all three were candidates for the Alliance Party, and none of them qualified for reimbursement).

Audit fee reimbursements for candidates ranged from no charge to $467.92, the total allowable under the 1986 adjusted figure. Total reimbursement of audit fees amounted to $81,279.31.

A complete list of names, addresses and occupations of candidates, and names and addresses of their respective business managers is included in Part II, Appendix I of this report while a summary of financial contributions received and election expenses incurred by candidates and business managers is contained in Part II, Appendix III.

2. Registered Political Parties

Six registered political parties were registered in the register of political parties prior to Nomination Day (October 4, 1986). These parties, together with their respective Chief Official Agents were as follows:

Registered Political Party	Chief Official Agent
Alliance Party of Saskatchewan	Carol Sveinson
Communist Party of Canada (Saskatchewan Committee)	Peter Smollett
Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan	Terrence Anthony Leier
The Saskatchewan Liberal Association	F. William Johnson
The Saskatchewan Section of the New Democratic Party	Garry A. Simons
Western Canada Concept (Sask.)	James Ripplinger

Of the six parties, four filed Election Expense Returns of which two qualified for a reimbursement under The Election Act. Those filing returns were the Liberals, New Democrats, Progressive Conservatives and the Western Canada Concept. Both the New Democrats and the Progressive Conservatives qualified for reimbursement, and both at the maximum allowable level of $140,557.36.

A summary of election expenses incurred by registered political parties is included in a comparative summary of expenses incurred by political parties contained in Part II, Appendix V of this report.
